

Image-Guided Needle Localization

During this procedure, a thin wire is inserted into your breast to locate the area of concern. The wire will be removed along with the concerning tissue during surgery.